PPPPPPPP Numb. 4733

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 20. 1716.

London, December 20.
Arrived a Mail from France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 26.

Naples, November 24.

ON the 20th Instant we received the melancholy News of the Death of the Archduke, which has caused a great Affliction. Last Week was celebrated, with great Magnificence, the Festival of St. Elizabeth, whose Name the Empress bears; there was in Chapel Royal, a general Salvo of the Artillery and Musketry, a Comedy in the Evening, and other Rejoicings at the Palace. The Gallies of this Kingdom are returned from Gaeta, after having made the usual Exchange of the Garrisons, Officers, and Canoniers. Tartanes are preparing to transport Troops to Reggio, and make the same Exchange there.

Rome, Dec. 1. On the 28th the Chevalier de Langon, who commanded the Galleys of Malta in the Levant last Campaign, had Audience of the Pope, and was received with all Sorts of Testimony of good Will and Approbation of his Services. The 29th, first Sunday of Advent, the Pope held Chapel in the Church of the Vatican, and assisted at the solemn Mass celebrated by the sieur Aldrovandi, who is suddenly to return to Spain in the Quality of Nuncio. After which, his Holiness carried the Holy Sacrament in the Pauline Chapel, which was magnificently adorned and illuminated; and then dined in the Palace. On the 30th, he heard the first Preaching of the Advent, and afterwards gave Audience to Cardinal de Schrottenbach, who discoursed with him upon the Schemes formed at the Court of Vienna, for continuing the War against the Turks; and represented to him, at the same Time, the Need the Emperor has of being powerfully assisted by his Holiness, for making all possible Advantages of the Success of the last Campaign. 'Tis assured that the Congregation of the Holy Office has finished the Process of the Bishop of Oviedo, and that he is convicted [illegible] with the Errors of Molinos, to perpetual Imprisonment.

Venice, Dec. 5. Last Week the two Ships of the Line newly built in the Arsenal, having lain some time in the Middle of the great Canal, were conducted to the Port of Malamocco, where they are to be moused with all their Artillery. On the 30th of last Month, another of like Force was launched, as a fourth will be to Morrow. The rest that are upon the Stocks, are well advanced; and 'tis hoped they will be ready in the Spring to join the Fleet. The Brother of General Schulemburg is arrived here, to wait his return from Corfu; from whence he will set out assoon as he has given the necessary Orders for the Security of the Town and Island, and finishing the Fortifications. The Saick which arrived here from Dalmatia, is sent back again with the Sums designed for the Payment of the Troops. The Sieur Sebastian Mocenigo, is preparing his Equipage, to go to take upon him the Command, in place of General Emo, who is elected by the Grand Council Podesta of Padua. They write from Brescia, that many German Officers are arrived there; as also the Baggage of Prince Lowenstein, the new Governour of the Milanese, who is expected in a few Days. We have not yet received any certain News from Constantinople; but some Ships come from thence, and put in at Ancona, have reported, that the Grand Signior had sent Orders to all the Bashaws to augment the Number of the Troops that each are to furnish; and that the Basha of Grand Cairo is to send 6000 more Men than he did last Year, [illegible] in proportion. We just now hear, that the Generalissimo has put the Fleet into Winter Quarters; that the Captain-Basha is gone to Constantinople; and that General Schulemburg is arrived at Otranto.

Madrid, Dec. 8. The Council of the Indies is employed in examining the ancient Laws and Pragmatica's relating to the Commerce of that Country, in order the better to put them in Execution, which they have not been during the late War. There remain still some Articles to be regulated with the Court of Rome, particularly in what relates to the settling of Pensions upon the Benefices in favour to Strangers, against the Laws of the Kingdom; and some other Articles concerning the Expeditions of the Datary, whereupon the King and the Clergy have made Remonstrances ever since the Year 1633.

Copenhagen, Dec. 12. 'The Commander Wiebe 'arrived here Yesterday from Norway, with Ad- 'vice, that the Swedes, who were advanced up 'to the Frontiers, were a little retired again, to 'take Winter Quarters. That in the new Fort 'which they have built near Swinesund, they 'are building a Church, but it is of Timber 'only: That they have a Garrison in that Fort 'of four Companies, and 40 Artificers, or Men 'to serve the Artillery: That the Governor of 'it is also arrived: That they are establish- 'ing the Magazines of Corn, which they fetch 'from far; and that they augment the Works 'as much as possible, with Intention to main- 'tain that Fort constantly; but yet is what, 'most assuredly, the King of Denmark will ne- 'ver permit, when they come to treat of Peace. 'On Wednesday last his Majesty made a Tour 'to Frederiksburg, and is expected back next 'Monday. 'Tis reported, that the Duke of Wur- 'temburg will return hither towards the Spring, 'to Command, in Chief, in the Descent upon 'Schonen.

Paris, Dec. 26. They talk of suppressing the Grand Council, as useless, and that the Affairs that were there treated on will be sent to the Parliament: They talk also of reducing the Number of General Farmers to 12, instead of 40, that they have been, and likewise of suppressing all the Sub-Farmers; but the Talk formerly mentioned of making Alterations in the Companies of Musketeers, is laid aside. Some Days ago the Archbishop of Rheims sent a Mandate to Moussou, to the Dean of the Church, to make him receive the Bull Unigenitus; the Dean assembled the Curates in his Jurisdiction, to read to them this Mandate, but one among them, while it was reading, cry'd out, that he had received Orders from the King not to receive that Bull, and then went out; the rest followed his Example, withdrew and went home: The Archbishop hearing of it, and having learnt who that Curate was, sent to take him; but he being advertised of it, fled from Curate to Curate, and at last came to Moussou to the Dean's House, and told him, that he was pursued by the Archers, who, in effect, came in presently after him; the Dean came out to them, and while he talked, the Curate slipped out at a Back-Door. The Archers not knowing the Curate, and finding no other Clergyman in the House, took the Dean for him, and were carrying him off, but the Troops that are there in Garrison would not permit it; and upon the Archers refusing to release him, they fired upon them, and wounded their Commander, which obliged them to relinquish their Prisoner. This Affair makes a great Noise.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 22.

Hague, Dec. 20. On Friday Evening the Son of Prince Kurakin, Ambassador of Muscovy, and divers Muscovite Lords, went from hence for Amsterdam, upon the Advice they had received of the Czar's Arrival there the Day before. The same Day the States also received Advice of his Majesty's Arrival. Messieurs the Deputies of Holland have Complimented that Monarch upon his Arrival, in the Name of the States of that Province; and divers Detachments of Horse Guards are made to Post themselves upon the Road, to serve as a Guard to attend his Czarian Majesty when he comes hither; but 'tis said he intends to tarry some Days at Amsterdam.

London, December 20.

Yesterday South-Sea-Stock was 103 one eighth to 103 one half. Bank 137 one half to 138. India 170 one half to 171 one half. African 23.

Whereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the 11th and 12th Years of the Reign of the late King William, For the more effectual employing the Poor, by incouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom; all wrought Silks, Bengals and Stuffs, mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Persia, China, or East-India, and all Callicoes printed, died, printed or stained there, are prohibited to be worn, or otherwise used within this Kingdom; and the said Goods, whether the same be mixed, sewed, or made up together with any other Goods or Materials for Sale, or otherwise, which shall be found in any Place (except in the Custom-House Warehouses for Exportation) are declared to be forfeited, and subject to be seized, and the Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, or that shall sell or dispose thereof, do forfeit 200 l. one Third to the King's Majesty, and the other two Thirds to the Person who shall sue for the same: And whereas it is manifested, that great Quantities of the said Goods are now sold and used in this Kingdom, contrary to the said Act, the Weavers Company of London have therefore resolved to use their best Endeavours to get such Goods seized, and to prosecute the Offenders; and whoever shall give Notice to Mr. Henry Symes, Ribbon Weaver, in Bell-Alley in Coleman-Street, where any of the said prohibited Goods may be found, so that the same may be seized, or any Person offending against the said Law; the Person giving such Notice shall have his or her Name concealed, if desired, and shall receive 25 l. out of every 100 l. which shall be got or recovered by such Seizures, or Prosecutions for the Penalty, and in Proportion for any lesser Sum; which Rewards will be paid by the said Mr. Seames.

RICHARD BULL, Druggist, from the Golden-Lion upon Ludgate-Hill, is removed to the King's Arms at the West End of St. Paul's Church in Ludgate-Street: Who being obliged not to deal in Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, or Drugs, for a certain Term, now sells fine Hollands, Printed Callicoes, Chints and Muslins, &c.
